Introducing our Judges

Mr Glenway Dymock (United Kingdom)

I grew up in the dog world, my parents having established the Afrika kennel of Basenjis in Sydney in the '60s. In their day, the Afrika dogs held the record for the number of BCNSW BIS and Sydney Royal BOB winners, and all-breeds success also came in the form of RUBIS and BPIS at Sydney Royal. A dog exported to the UK, in the days of six months' quarantine, won seven CCs and became a highly influential stud dog – his progeny won a record 78 British CCs.

In the '80s, I was at university and so unable to keep dogs, but I got my doggy 'fix' by living at the home of a Basenji friend. It was around this time that friends encouraged me to take up judging – initially I was passed for Basenjis and then the hound and toy groups before emigrating to the UK in 1993.

I have been lucky enough to have judged at a number of large shows in Europe including the spectacular Stockholm and Helsinki Internationals and the Nordic Show in Oslo. In the UK, I have judged at many of the well-known championship shows including the Houndshow, UK Toydog, Windsor, Richmond, Blackpool, Welsh KC and Scottish KC, and in 2008 I had the honour of judging Basenjis at Crufts.

I have judged Basenji specialties in Australia, the UK, Sweden, Finland, Norway and Germany and will be judging Australian Silky Terriers at Crufts in 2019. In recent years, I have made up one UK champion French Bulldog and bred two CC winners from her. I have also developed a deep interest in my partner Simon's Corgis, Pekingese and Whippets.

To say I am thrilled to be judging the championship show of the BCNSW would be the understatement of the year. It is exactly fifty years since my mother bought her first Basenji, Zuleika Kapanga, bred in Victoria (no Basenjis were born in NSW that year) and it will be extra special to have her sitting at the ringside watching the judging, especially in view of the fact that she and my late father were founder members of the club. I am so excited at the prospect of seeing the wonderful Australian Basenjis I remember from my days as a junior handler competing at BCNSW shows.

Mr Simon Parsons (United Kingdom)

I have been involved in the world of dogs for 50 years. My mother bred her first Pembroke Corgi litter in 1967 and since then the Deavitte and Oregonian kennel names have been carried by several UK champions. I have owned or lived with several other breeds including the Pekingese, Whippet, Dachshund, Jack Russell Terrier and my partner Glen's French Bulldogs.

My interest in Basenjis goes back to the 1970s when I owned a Domewood bitch. I have long been interested in the breed's history, did much of the research for the first UK champions book and have written for several breed club publications.

I first judged as a teenager and have been awarding challenge certificates since 1986. My first Basenji CC appointment came two years later and I have since judged the breed at Crufts, all three UK breed club shows and in several other countries, including the BCNSW specialty in 2004.

I worked for Dog World newspaper for nearly 40 years, and was editor for 17 years.

I'm very much looking forward to meeting the Australian Basenjis again – you have an enviable reputation for producing top quality dogs which have influenced the breed the world over.
